GOUT SPECIFIC!

An Effectual and Speedy Remedy

FOR THE

GOUT, RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA LUMBAGO & NEURALGIA.

Farnan's Specific has stood the test of years, and its beneficial influence, as well as the extraordinary rapidity with which it acts on the system and removes pain and the cause of pain—that is to say, the condition of the blood and stomach which produced the affliction—can be witnessed to by thousands. The cure is as COMPLETE as it is RAPID, and, strengthened by the testimonies of a large body of patients who have received almost INSTANTANEOUS relief after all other remedies have failed, the proprietor has the utmost confidence in offering it to the notice of the public. To the constitution it is harmless; to the fluids of the human frame it adds a healthy impetus; to the system generally it is invigorating to a degree unparalleled; and both sexes may take it to equal advantage. A dose taken about once a month, operates most effectually in preventing a return of the complaint.

CHLORODYNE.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE. Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated publicly in court that Dr J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to. See the TIMES, July 13th, 1864.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—The Right Hon Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and Dr Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service for Cholera was Chlorodyne. See LANCET, Dec. 31, 1864.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Extract from MEDICAL TIMES, Jan 15th, 1865—'It is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practioners. Of course it would not be thus singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place.'

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne is the best and most certain remedy in Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Consumption, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, &c.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne is a certain cure in Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, &c.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—'So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.' From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay—'Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I daily owe my restoration to health after eighteen months' severe suffering and when all other medicines had failed.'

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.—CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle. Sole Manufacturer J. T. Davenport, 33 Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury London. The immense demand enables the proprietors to reduce the price; it is now sold in bottles, 1s 1½; 2s 9d; 4s 6d and 11s.

The colonists of British Columbia will to-day be relieved by the departure of an official who has done much to blight their fortunes and to destroy all their energy had been endeavoring to build up. We heartily congratulate them on the return to England of Mr Arthur N. Birch. This gentleman, who was sent out from Downing Street with the limited experience that is to be gained by a few years' service in a public office, has filled for the past three years the responsible position of Colonial Secretary for British Columbia, and during the absence of Governor Seymour he administered the Government of that Colony. Since the proclamation of Union he has retained his position as Colonial Secretary of the united Colony, although we are not aware of his having been officially recognized as such, or of his having signed his name with that distinctive title. It is certain, however, that during the whole Administration of Governor Seymour he has been the presiding public servant, and that he is, in that capacity, responsible for the policy that has covered that Administration with disgrace. Placed in a position of high trust at a period when the affairs of these Colonies were in so critical a state as to require the wisest treatment, it needed thoughtful judgment, careful vigilance, steady industry, and the strictest impartiality to direct for good or for evil the tide that was then on the turn. Instead of these qualities we have found in Mr Birch impetuous self-sufficiency, careless indifference, a continual hankering after amusements, and expressed partialities and antipathies on public matters that had not even the decency to assume disguise. The critical condition of the country, its resources and requirements, seem to have been never comprehended by him, or he could not, consistently with duty, have suffered, without protest, the published statements that were forwarded to headquarters, in which the prosperity of British Columbia was insisted upon in such astounding terms, while its difficulties were passed over in silence. Under the auspices of Mr Birch the Government has been at variance with the commercial community on questions of vital import. Among these we may instance the discriminating Tariff of 1865, the Gold Export Tax, the extravagant outlay for direct steam communication with New Westminster, and the locality of the seat of Government. The huge annual expenditure for official service was continually kept on the increase, until the direct necessity compelled reduction at the commencement of this year; before its close the utter state of insolvency to which the Government must find itself reduced will compel further and serious reductions. These financial contingencies might have been foreseen and protested against in time by Mr Birch. It will probably be urged by him that the finances of the Colony have been sacrificed to the Victoria merchants, by their stocks on hand entering the Fraser free of duty; but an investigation of the traffic returns and of the quantities of goods shipped from Victoria, coupled with the corresponding depreciation of the road tolls and of the internal revenue, will at once demolish this plausible but fallacious plea. No doubt some benefit accrues to the merchant herein, but the item is not sufficient seriously to impair the revenue, and is in no respect equivalent to the loss sustained by the abolition of the Free Port. It is not surprising that the handful of people still left at New Westminster should have sumptuously entertained Mr Birch with the customary ovations prior to his departure. Dilapidated and deserted as that embryo town is, Mr Birch has been its untiring advocate, as he has been the unceasing opponent of Victoria. This characteristic in a matter wherein he of all men should have been strictly neutral, is a fair example of the want of judgment and prudence that has proved so mischievous during his career in the country. His vigorous energy in working this pet antipathy might have been more usefully directed to matters of public utility, in dealing with which his assiduity has been spasmodic and uncertain. The significant silence of the people of Victoria thus far sufficiently exhibits the dissatisfaction which respect for constituted authority alone deters them from expressing in a marked manner. The Annexation feeling, against which we have written our utmost, is undoubtedly the offspring of the discontented state which the present regime has engendered. We really believe Governor Seymour to be anxious to promote the advancement of the whole Colony; but he must have dispassionate and capable advisers, and not an adviser—arbitrary, prejudiced and inexperienced—like Mr A. N. Birch. We trust the experience he has gained at our expense may be of use to him in his future career—in which we hope he may be as successful as he can desire; but at the same time we must say that he must seek a sphere containing "pastures new" for his peculiar talents. We earnestly advise him for his own sake not to think of returning to this Colony.

CHICAGO, July 10—The Reconstruction Bill passed the House yesterday—119 to 3—with the amendment of Wilson and Benjamin, providing that the President's pardon gives no right to registration, and punishing obstruction of the law with fine and imprisonment. The Senators prefer their own bill to that passed by the House. It is evident that a conference committee will be required to adjust the difficulty.

WASHINGTON, July 12—Arrangements have been completed between the United States Postoffice and that of England, reducing postage for letters to 12 cents, and for other mail matter, newspapers, etc., 6 cents per 4 ozs. CHICAGO, July 9—Private despatches state that the Indians attacked a company of soldiers near Fort Wallace and killed 100. Two companies occupying Fort Danger were captured.

NEW YORK, July 11—The Chronicle says that the Reciprocity Treaty just negotiated with the Sandwich Islands secures important advantages to the United States over other nations. It will be sent to the Senate next session. The treaty goes into effect the tenth day after the ratification being accepted by competent authorities. It is believed that this is the first step towards acquiring the Islands. The Boston Journal says that the treaty insures the Pacific States sugar, molasses, coffee, meat, vegetables and other articles of domestic produce at lower rates and duty free. So says the World's special.

WASHINGTON, June 12—The Reconstruction bill, with some slight amendments, passed the Senate by a vote of 32 to 6. The House refuses to concede, and has called for a committee of compliance. A resolution was passed in the Senate for adjournment till Nov. 13th.

[Trash—ED. COLONIST.]

LONDON, July 12—The Sultan was received at Dover by the Prince of Wales, acting for the Queen, and the Sovereign of Egypt was escorted to London, where they met an unusually brilliant reception. House of Commons.

THURSDAY, May 16th.

FRACAS IN THE LOBBY.

Mr. Layard said he felt it his duty to bring under the notice of the Speaker the fact that in passing through the lobby on the late division he was addressed by the hon. member for Marylebone in terms so disgraceful that he would not venture to repeat them. The affair was entirely unprovoked on his part. The hon. member came up to him and addressed him in language which, as he had said, he would not repeat, but which, for the credit of the House, he trusted that no other member would use. The hon. member did not use the words once, but repeated them. He consequently felt it his duty to appeal to the right hon gentleman in the chair to ask him what he should do. The hon member charged him with wilful falsehood, without his having said anything to the hon gentleman. He therefore begged to represent the matter to the right hon gentleman in the chair for the credit of the House, and ask him what course he ought to adopt.

Mr. H. Lewis said he was not sorry the hon member for Southwark had brought the matter before the House. He trusted he should be the last member of that House to offend against the laws of gentlemanly demeanour and proper conduct either to the hon gentleman or any other member, but there was such a thing as trying the patience of members of that House beyond the point that they could by any possibility endure, and when the hon gentleman said that the observations of which he complained were unprovoked, possibly accustomed as he was to violent and unprovoked, if not slanderous language, the hon member might not think that certain words were offensive. He begged distinctly to say that he was determined not to take any notice whatever of the language attributed to the hon member for Southwark at the meeting he held the other evening, and at which, addressing his constituents, he called a number of gentlemen in that House, who had endeavoured to discharge their duty, traitors. He did not know whether such language was proper in the opinion of the hon gentleman, but he would maintain that there was not a gentleman in that House, except the hon member for Southwark, who was capable of addressing such language to a meeting where those who were so designated had no opportunity of replying. In going through the lobby the hon gentleman addressed him (Mr H Lewis). He had not the most remote idea of speaking to the hon gentleman, but he might then have made some reference to a very scandalous remark which the hon gentleman had applied to him individually. It was about as slanderous an expression as could be used. It was impossible that any one who took the liberty of thinking for himself, and of voting against a party with which he generally acted or doing anything except that which exactly suited the hon member for Southwark, was to submit to be called a traitor. He did not know what the hon gentleman's definition of the term might be. He did not, however, use the words to which the hon gentleman referred until the hon member asked him "whether he (Mr H Lewis) was afraid of secondary symptoms?" (A laugh, and a voice, "Where?") In the lobby. Whereupon, he took the opportunity of stating that he was not afraid of secondary symptoms (a laugh), and he also expressed his opinion on the remarks made by the hon gentleman to his constituents, and that he ought not to make use of the words he had employed with regard to a number of gentlemen in that House. He then, in words of Saxon English, expressed his opinion of this subject, (A laugh.) He thought that the hon gentleman could do no less than repudiate the very injurious imputations that he had been pleased to cast upon him as one of a number of gentlemen who had been conscientiously endeavouring to discharge their duty to their country.

Mr. Layard observed that all he could say was that the hon member must have been dreaming, since he never used anything like the language the hon member imputed to him. He believed there were other hon members present who would support his statement. The hon member must be labouring under a most extraordinary hallucination, since all he had stated was utterly and entirely contrary to the fact. It was perfectly true that in a jocular manner he had used the word "traitor." Under these circumstances, in addressing his constituents at Bermondsey, he was asked how it was that they did not carry the Reform Bill, to which he replied that it was impossible to carry a Reform Bill when they were leading an army in which there were 50 traitors. Had he supposed that he was giving the slightest offence to any person by the use of that expression, he should have been only too happy to have withdrawn it. He need scarcely say that had the hon member come to him and stated that he felt personally aggrieved by the expression, he should at once have explained it in a manner satisfactory to the hon member. Instead of doing this, however, the hon member had without one word of provocation on his part addressed him in the lobby in language which was too scandalous for repetition.

Mr Lewis said that after the explanation the hon member for Southwark had thought proper to give of the language he had uttered, he could only express his regret that he had not called upon him for an explanation. Not having taken that course, he felt himself to be in the wrong, and begged to withdraw the expressions he had used.

Mr Layard thought the hon. member should also withdraw the charge he had made against him using offensive language in the lobby.

Mr Lewis said that he could not possibly do so, as it was the fact that the hon member had made use of the language he had attributed to him.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer said that, having listened very impartially to what had taken place, it appeared that both the hon members had been dreaming, which was not unlikely to have been the case, considering the hour at which they had arrived. [Laughter.] It seemed to him that the word hallucination was the only one that could be applied to the narrative to which they had just listened. He was happy to find, notwithstanding what had occurred, that the hon members regarded each other with feelings of reciprocal respect. [Much laughter.] Hon members were all liable to occasional ebullitions of temper, which, when an explanation was offered, should no longer give rise to angry feelings. Both hon gentlemen had given satisfactory explanations of the language they had used, and while regretting that the incident had occurred at all, he was happy to find that they would not in future regard each other with any less esteem in consequence of what had taken place. The Speaker, he thought, would agree with him that it was unnecessary to take any further notice of the matter.

The Speaker said he would only add to the right hon gentleman that the House of Commons should not be the theatre for the utterance of such expressions as they had listened to that evening. Whatever language had been used outside the House, it should not have been repeated in this place. Cheers.

The Return of Sir Roger Tichborne.

The reappearance of a long-lost son has always in it something striking and dramatic. The papers have lately been full of accounts of such a reappearance, the interest in which is in this case intensified by the fact that the long-lost son has been 14 years away from England, that he returns under most romantic circumstances, and that above all, he is, if his claim be genuine, the heir to a baronetcy and a very large property in Hampshire.

The story has been hitherto told so much by piecemeal, that it may be as well to recapitulate it. In 1853, Roger Charles Tichborne, an ex-lieutenant in the 6th Dragoons, left England to visit South America. Early in 1854, Mr. Tichborne having declared he would never return to England during his father's lifetime, crossed from Peru to Rio Janeiro, and embarked on board a small schooner, the Bella of Liverpool, for Jamaica. The Bella, however, never reached her destination. A portion of a vessel, which was clearly a part of the wreck of the schooner, was picked up at sea. The underwriters paid the insurance, and no doubt remained that all hands, including Mr. Tichborne, had perished in her.

The lost son was duly mourned and duly forgotten. In 1862, his father Sir James Tichborne, died, and a second son, Sir Alfred, a Roman Catholic, who had married a daughter of Lord Arundel of Wardour, succeeded to the title. This young man ran through his property with extraordinary rapidity. He raced, built yachts, and got over-head-and-ears in debt. His last favorite toy was a little pony that he used to bring on the table after dinner. He died in 1866 without any children; but shortly after his death Lady Tichborne gave birth to a son, who up to the present time has been in possession of the title. Meanwhile, faint rumors that young Tichborne was still alive reached England—often through evident imposters, who made money by trading on the affections of a mother eager to receive such good news. Sometimes it was reported that he had escaped the wreck, and was a stock-keeper on the Falkland Islands; at others, that he was a mate on board an American whaler. For eight years, however, he never wrote home, either to his mother, his banker, or his lawyer; nor did he from the Christmas he embarked on board the Bella draw any money for his support. It was not till early in 1866 that letters were received by his mother from Australia, stating that he had been picked up at sea by a vessel, called the Osprey, and conveyed to Australia, where he had since lived as a horse-breaker and butcher. Having met in Australia an old negro servant of his uncle's, the late Sir Edward Doughty, and hearing from him that his father was dead, he had resolved to return with his wife and child and claim the inheritance.

Early on New Year's Day last a lady, one of the Tichborne Family, entering the old chapel of the ancient mansion of the family near Alresford, was startled at seeing the old negro servant Andrew Bogle at prayer in his accustomed corner. He instantly told the lady that Sir Roger had arrived, and was then at the Swan Inn, closest the park gates. Bogle said that when the Bella went down, Sir Roger and a dozen others escaped in the long-boat, and after all but four or five men had been washed overboard, the Osprey had picked up the survivors. While at Alresford the claimant recognised many persons, and alluded to many incidents of past years. The farmers were most eager to see if his eyes twinkled, and his right knee turned inwards, as Sir Roger's used to do. One man having obtained by particular request what he called "a full faced view of his back," declared, slapping his thigh with satisfaction, that he would now "swear to him all over the world." The latest report is that the prodigal son—weighing 18 stone, has been recognized by his mother. That the mother at least is satisfied of his identity there appears indeed to be no doubt. As, however, there are sales which must be cancelled, and heavy debts which must be be disallowed, if this claim be established, it is scarcely wonderful that the lawyers should be slow to recognize the new claimant.

Nor can even the strong fact of the Dowager Lady Tichborne's recognition of her long-lost son be taken as conclusive. Thirteen years have elapsed since the young man went away; and it is admitted that his appearance has undergone a great change. A mother's anxiety for the return of a son, long supposed to be lost, may easily lead her to put faith in slight resemblances; and the memory of an old lady may be weak, or her sight or hearing defective. In such cases imposition would not be so difficult as it would at first appear to be, especially if a claimant has possessed himself of full information about Sir Roger's early life, which he might easily get from neighbors or from old servants of the family. Lawyers, therefore, naturally ask for further proofs.

COOKED AND UNCOOKED FOOD FOR HOGS. A correspondent in the New England Farmer says: I purchased two pigs four weeks old, October 16, 1864. They were small breed, part Chester county. They were kept mostly on skimmed milk with a very little meal, till May, 1865. From May to July they were kept almost wholly on milk with a few weeks. When dry weather commenced, not having sufficient milk for them, I began giving them meal, increasing the quantity as the milk lessened. In September I began giving them potatoes and pumpkins, but did not discontinue the meal. For several months their usual allowance was three quarts of meal three times a day, with what milk I had, and the same quantity of potatoes, or an equivalent in pumpkins. Several weeks before they were killed, I began gradually to lessen the quantity of potatoes, but gave some at every meal. I never cooked anything for them and never gave them anything warm. They were never sick. December 15th, 1865, one weighed dressed, 396, the other 342 pounds. Quite a number of pigs of this same litter were sold to different individuals and killed about the same time but not one of them, so far as I can learn, weighed over 300 pounds. There are certainly two weighty reasons for giving hogs uncooked food. It saves labor, and avoids all danger of injuring them with hot feed, while it adds to the weight of the hogs and the quality of the pork.

TO THE PUBLIC:—At the Licensing Court, yesterday, Col. Foster, sitting as a Magistrate, alluded to my house as a resort for bad characters, and added, that people passing it were in danger of being robbed. These charges I pronounce to be entirely incorrect. I harbor no bad characters, and complaint has never been made against my House for any improper proceedings there or in its vicinity. Furthermore, I served fourteen years in the British Navy, and received an honorable discharge; I also worked for Col. Foster himself for a period of seven months, to his entire satisfaction, as well as to that of every other person for whom I have done service. My house, I maintain, is respectable, and the neighborhood quiet and orderly; in support of which statement I may mention, that my family have resided on the premises sixteen months, and that although I am frequently absent until a late hour of the night, in attendance upon Volunteer duties, they have never been molested. In conclusion, I refer Col. Foster to any or all of my neighbors to substantiate what I have asserted.

From Cariboo.

RICHFIELD, July 3.

From our correspondent's letter, received yesterday, we extract the following:

Early yesterday morning some excitement broke the general dullness by the news of new discoveries. No particulars were received—only the general statement that a strike had been made on a creek running into Willow river. The Discovery claim took out a prospect of FOUR OUNCES and four dollars at the bottom of their shaft, only a distance of twenty-three feet from the surface. The whole of the creek was staked off.

I attended the trial of Barry, which excited a great deal of interest. It is the opinion of many with whom I have talked, after hearing the evidence, that there never was a more cold-blooded murder, and that the sentence was a righteous one. Barry was perfectly self-possessed throughout the trial. He retained his cool manner when brought up for sentence. He did not budge a muscle, and walked in and out of the Court calmly and coolly. The Judge said he could not recommend him for mercy, as it was clear that he had done the deed with a deliberation aforethought—or words to that effect. When the irons were put on him again, Barry said in the most unconcerned manner, "So help me, God, I did not commit the murder, and I'll die like a man."

The William Creek Bed Rock Flume Company were very fortunate in getting all the damage done by the sudden rise of the river repaired in two days. As chance would have it, the banks did not cave in, or it would have taken as many weeks to set matters right again.

There is to be a fight between Wilson and Eden. The arrangements, I hear, are now being made, though the day has not transpired.

H. M. Curry was committed for perjury, some time ago, the Grand Jury having found a true bill against him. He did not come up to time when he was wanted by the Court, and the consequence is that his friends will have to answer in the sum of $1500.

Cariboo.

[From the Sentinel, July 1.]

WILLIAM CREEK.

The dullness occasioned by the late suspension of mining operations, on the claims in the centre of the creek, is not yet dispelled. Although the work of reopening the drain is progressing steadily, still it will be eight or ten days before many of the claims will be enabled to work. Several of the ground sluice claims above Richfield, and between the latter place and the canon, will commence cleaning up during the present week, so that our next weekly mining report will, we trust, be of a more flattering character than the present.

Davis Co. washed up for the week 122 oz. Never-Sweat Co. are making $10 a-day to the hand. Forest Rose Co. started washing on Friday, when they cleaned up 13 oz. Raby Co. have found prospects of $2 50 to the pan.

CONKLIN GULCH.

The Moonlight Co., situated about half a mile from the mouth of the gulch, on the south side, had struck dirt that prospected $1 75 t the pan, and had not reached the bed rock. The Ericsson Co. washed up for the week 45 oz. The Union Co. 18 oz. for the week. The Reid Co. washed up for the week 46½ oz. The Indian Queen Co. are making about $20 a-day to the hand.

STOUT GULCH.

The Alturas Co. only worked three days last week, and cleaned up 12 oz. Mucho Oro Co. washed up for the week 40 oz.

BLACK JACK GULCH.

Annie Walker Co. cleaned up $400 for the week ending 23rd June.

LOWHEE CREEK.

Prospects still continue very flattering on this creek, although no developments have yet been made by the company who tapped the channel on the east bank. A number of companies on this creek are making from $8 to $10 a-day to the hand.

CEDAR CREEK.

All the companies on the creek have got fairly to work, and are taking out more or less money. Discovery Co.'s ground is yielding about an ounce a-day to the hand.

CANADIAN CREEK.

The Clear Grit Co. are getting indications of pay, having washed out on Saturday a little over two ounces of very coarse gold.

LAST CHANCE CREEK.

Grey and company are doing extremely well. There are a number of Chinamen at work on this creek, but it is difficult to ascertain what they are making.

[From the Columbian.]

THREE DAYS LATER.

From Mr Keays, who left Williams Creek on the 3rd, we learn the following:—The assizes opened on the 1st; Barry's case, for murdering Blessing, occupied nearly a whole day. The evidence was purely circumstantial, but very strong, and the Jury soon returned a verdict of "guilty;" only one juryman having the least hesitation. As he went from the Court House, and before the verdict was rendered, the prisoner remarked that he did not think ten men in the Colony believed him guilty. He appeared quite unconcerned throughout, and declared his innocence to the last. He was sentenced to be hanged.

The Indian charged with the murder of Morgan, was found guilty and sentenced to be hanged.

The suit between the Canadian Co. and the Grouse Creek Flume Co. was to be tried on the 3rd; to be followed by the Blackhawk appealed case.

Big Bend.

The Examiner says: We have been permitted to make the following extracts from a letter, received yesterday, and dated

STEAMER '49, LAPORTE, June 15.

We had a heavy trip this time. We landed 40 head of beef cattle, 30 head of fat sheep, 15 pack animals, and some 15 tons of freight. We were five days from Colville. They charge $25 a-head for beef and horses, $6 for sheep, and 10c. per pound for freight, &c.

The news is good from the mines. Every one is to work, and everyone has got money. There are about 375 men in the mines, and more coming. We land 14 miles from the mines. A great many of the claims are just being opened, and commence paying.

Old Black Hawk "will take out a bushel of money this season." He says so, and I think so.

LATER.

Just as we were going to press, we were handed the following extract from a private letter.

FRENCH CREEK, June 28.

Big Bend is only just beginning to show up. Every claim that has yet got down has turned up trumps. Black Hawk and Howlett have got a good thing. The latter took out 16 ozs. at the last wash up.

Captain White intends building another boat. Was shown a nugget yesterday from the Pete Co., at the lower end of the creek, weighing 11 ounces. Expect big news from this quarter by every express.

CHRIST CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL PIC-NIC.—A very interesting and sociable re-union of the teachers and scholars of the Sunday School connected with the Cathedral Church, took place on Saturday, at Langford Lake. The attendance of juveniles was large, and the day was passed in the prosecution of games and other means of enjoyment. His Lordship the Bishop of Columbia and Mrs Hills, Dean Cridge and Mrs Cridge, Revs Gribbell and Raynard, Registrar General Alston, the Mayor and other prominent persons who manifest an interest in the spiritual welfare of the young of this Colony, attended and assisted in the various exercises. The supply of edibles was bountiful, and the little ones made the groves resound with their merry shouts. During the afternoon, Mr McCrea presented a writing-desk and three gold pen-and-pencil cases as prizes to the winners of foot-races. A successful contestant for one of the prizes was a little girl, who, by her wonderful activity, distanced all competitors of the sterner mould who had the temerity to enter the lists against her. A feature of the day was the presence on the ground of the "Punch and Judy" apparatus, brought out by Messrs Callingham, Clarke, Drummond and Elliott, which contributed greatly to the amusement of the young folk. The day, which was delightfully pleasant, was passed in a most enjoyable manner, and the participants returned in the evening evidently highly gratified with the proceedings.

THE GOVERNOR'S VISIT NORTH.—We understand Governor Seymour had a double motive in going north a few days ago. The first was to take a look at Queen Charlotte's Island, for which a wealthy American company are said to have offered a large sum of money on condition that they obtain a fee simple title to the estate, and that the sovereignty of the island be transferred from Great Britain to the United States.—Morning News.

[Our cotemporary presents a picture of simplicity hard to rival. The fee simple title to Queen Charlotte's Island said to have been offered by the Governor, is not so bad for the News; but that paper must not find fault if its readers are not quite such great simple-tons as to place any reliance on the story. The News has been "crammed,"—stuffed to the crop by some Confederation wags. He shouldn't show such greenness.]

REV. MR PUNSHON'S MODE OF RAISING £10 000—The Bristol (England) Daily Post hears that about three years ago it was stated at the Wesleyan Methodist Conference that funds were urgently needed to build chapels at several watering places, and to repair others, upon which the Rev. Morley Punshon rose and stated that he believed he could, with God's help, and in the space of three years, raise £10,000 by lecturing, the proceeds to go to the object just alluded to. He has so far fulfilled his pledge that he has paid in £9000, and got half way through the £1000 required to complete his engagement, so that by next conference the required sum will be made up.

THE Government Gazette, of Saturday, contains the following notice, which we reproduce for public information:—Government House, Victoria, 10th July, 1867.—The Governor directs it to be notified that during his residence in Victoria he will receive all those who may wish to see him on every Monday and Thursday, from 11:30 a. m. to 2 p. m. at the Public Offices. Should the Governor be prevented going to the Public Offices the flag will not be hoisted. Persons who may desire to bring matters of public importance before him will be received either at the Government House or the Public Offices during ordinary business hours on any week day.—By Command, D. C. MAUNSELL.

TO BE HAULED OFF.—Several days ago H.M.S. Beaver, while being launched at Laing's yard, broke down the ways. The steamer has since laid in the soft mud in the vicinity of the yard, and we learn that today the gunboat Forward will make an effort to haul her off, in which we hope she will be successful as the surveying season is slipping rapidly away.

ADMIRAL HASTINGS, on Saturday, came ashore from the Zealous and called upon His Excellency the Governor. The Zealous, during the afternoon, was visited by Maguire's band, who played several pieces of music for the gratification of the ship's company.

THE FIDELITER sailed for Portland on Saturday morning, carrying a few passengers and a small freight. We believe it is the intention of the owners to place this steamer again on the Oregon route.

INSPECTION—The tug Diana, with Major-General Alexander, U.S.A., aboard, started yesterday on a tour of inspection around Puget Sound.

THE ENTERPRISE, on Saturday evening, brought down twenty passengers.

GILLRAY'S CARICATURES—The raffle for this work of art will take place at the "Boomerang" at 8½ this evening. Six chances are still open. Be in time! Be in time!

IMPROVING—Several subdivisions of town lots, on Park street, were sold by Mr Davies, on Saturday, at $80 each, an advance of $30 per lot upon the price paid for the same lots a few weeks ago.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The gunner of H. M. S. Malacca fell suddenly dead upon the deck of that vessel on Saturday. He had shown no signs of illness previously.

THE IDAHO returned to Esquimalt from Nanaimo at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She will sail for San Francisco at 6 this evening.

TAKE AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL to stop your Colds, Coughs and Bronchial Affections before they run into Consumption that you cannot stop.

IT was Dr Haggin and not Dr Trimble who set the broken limb of Seres, of the Richmond.

Miss Leslie on Slang

'There is no wit,' says the author of the Behaviour Book, 'in a lady to speak of taking a 'snooze,' instead of a nap—in calling pantaloons 'pants,' or gentlemen 'gents'—in saying of a man whose dress is getting old, that he looks 'seedy'—and in alluding to an amusing anecdote or a diverting incident, to say that it is 'rich.' All slang words are detestable from the lips of ladies. We are always sorry to hear a young lady use such a word as 'polking,' when she tells of having been engaged in a certain dance too fashionable not long since; but, happily, now it is fast going out, and almost banished from the best society. To her honor be it remembered Queen Victoria has prohibited the polka being danced in her presence. How can a gentle girl bring herself to say, 'Last night I was polking with Mr Bell,' or, 'Mr Cope came and asked me to polk with him.' Its coarse and ill-sounding name is worthy of the dance. We have little tolerance for young ladies, who have nothing of the right stock to go upon, substitute coarseness and impertinence (not to say impudence), and try to excite laughter and attract the attention of gentlemen by talking slang. Where do they get it? How do they pick it up? From low newspapers or vulgar books? Surely not from low companions? We have heard one of these ladies, when her collar chanced to be pinned awry say that it was put on drunk—also that her bonnet was drunk, meaning crooked on her head. When disconcerted she was 'floored.' When submitting to a thing unwillingly, she was 'brought to the scratch.' Sometimes she did things 'on the sly.'"

NEW YORK TAXATION—The rate of State taxation this year will reach 1 per cent. on property. Of course this is to be paid out of the income which the property yields, which may be fairly estimated at 7 per cent. One-seventh of the income of the year is thus required to pay the taxes levied by the State. In other words, the State levies a tax of 14 per cent. on incomes, in addition to the 5 per cent. levied by the general Government. An income tax of 19 per cent., in addition to a heavy assessment upon every article manufactured, imported used, or consumed in any shape, and also to what may be levied for municipal purposes, is a pretty fair sort of burden for a Republic, not yet a century old, to stagger under. But we shall get used to it in course of time.—New York Times.

GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN ON DRUNKARDS.—Mr Train makes the following pointed reply to an invitation to address a great temperance mass meeting at Des Moines, Iowa, on the Fourth of July; To W S Peterson, editor Platform, Chairman Committee of Arrangements, Des Moines, Iowa. When drunkards to the right of us, drunkards to the left of us, drunkards in front of us, blunder and stagger your mission is God-like. When physicians stop giving whisky and alcoholic medicines to their patients—when editors practice temperance as well as preach it—when young men have the courage to say 'No!'—when preachers stop the practice of giving wine to pledged temperance men at the sacrament—when temperance becomes as fashionable as drunkenness now is, cold water will be at a premium. Inclination says, Yes—engagements, No. Sincerely, GEO. F. TRAIN.

THE Berlin correspondent of the London Star, writing on the 20th of May, forwards the following items of news: It is reported that Krupp has offered his monster cannon as a present to the King of Prussia. It is valued at about £20,000. If the gift is accepted Prussia will be able to render at least one of her coast batteries absolutely unapproachable by any armour-plated frigate afloat or likely to be afloat for years to come.

Herr Bauer's invention of a submarine ship is to be submitted to a Prussian naval commission. If it should prove successful it is difficult to imagine in what manner the most powerful seips of war could offer the slightest resistance; in fact it will be absolutely necessary for all other naval powers to arm themselves with a submarine navy.

THE NATIONAL DEBT OF GREAT BRITAIN.—From a treasury return just printed, it appears that in 1866 the total amount of the English national debt was £802,842 949, of which £773 313,229 was funded, £8 187,700 unfunded, and £21,342 020 the estimated value of terminable annuities. In the same year the terminable annuities created were £102, 283, those expired £79 794, the value of those reduced, £589 643; obligations were cancelled to the amount of £2,554,300; and funded debt paid off to £2,455,066.

BISMARCK.—It appears that even Count Bismarck has his little weaknesses. The Parisian literary world, which was amused and scandalized by the photographic liaison of M. Dumas' pere and Miss Menkin, is making merry over a similar one of the great Prussian Minister and Mlle Pauline Lucca; but it is stated that this is due to an accidental rencontre of the charming singer with Count Bismarck at the studio of the photographer, who was unable to resist the temptation to immortalize their amicable tete a tete.

MARRIAGE OF MONKS.—A large number of monks and priests in Italy have taken advantage of the new privileges conferred upon them by the new law for civil marriages, and have rushed into wedlock with unexpected alacrity. Even the nuns have caught the infection, and the matrimonial mania threatens to complete the abolition of the convents begun by the civil law. Human nature appears to be a good deal stronger than the most rigid of monastic vows.

☞ Information has been received at the Treasury Department that the Canadian officers of Customs are aiding and abetting, in every possible way, the practice of smuggling goods from Canada to the United States. Merchants and men of acknowledged respectability in Canada and England are said to have embarked capital in this contraband business.

"Why are orphans the happiest children in the world?" asked a little boy of his mother, who had been just chastising him.

"They are not happy," said the mother; "but why do you think they are?".

"Because they have no mother to spank 'em."

THE PEOPLE'S FRIEND.

PERRY DAVIS'

VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

The Greatest Family Medicine of the age

Taken internally, it cures sudden colds, coughs, etc., weak stomach, general debility, nursery sore mouth, canker, liver complaint, dyspepsia or indigestion, cramp and pain in the stomach, bowel complaint, painter's colic Asiatic cholera, diarrhœa and dysentery. APPLIED EXTERNALLY, cures felons, boils and old sores, severe burns and scalds, cuts, bruises and sprains, swelled joints, ringworm and tetter, broken breasts, frosted feet and chilblains, toothache, pain in the face, neuralgia and rheumatism. IT IS A SURE REMEDY FOR AGUE AND CHILLS AND FEVER.

Follow Disease to its Sources.—To disease cannot be cured merely by local treatment. For example: No application to the part affected will radically cure the pile. The habit of body, which is the primary cause of the complaint, must be changed. For this purpose, Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, the finest vegetable alterative ever compounded, is the medicine to be used. Costiveness is almost invariably the immediate cause of this distressing disorder. This condition of the bowels is at once changed by the action of the Pills. Indigestion and morbid action of the liver produce constipation. These, too, are swiftly remedied by this powerful vegetable agent, and the organs toned and regulated to a condition of perfect health. Thus are the symptoms and source of the disease removed together, and it is at an end forever. It is the same with all the complaints which come within the remedial scope of this great alterative, cathartic, and antibilious medicine. They are put up in glass vials, and will keep in any climate. In cases arising from, or aggravated by impure blood, BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA should be used in connection with the Pills. 414

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine.—Dr. MAGILL is the founder of a new Medical system The great Italians, whose vast intellect does not only the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary PILLS, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so. His wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored and the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the discontent power of Magill's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Magill's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin Magill's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGILL, 1 Platt street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cents per box.

A Household Word to Millions.—Throughout two-thirds of the civilized world, Bristol's Sarsaparilla may be called the synonym for invigoration. Its tonic properties are proverbial in every South American country, in Mexico, Cuba, Central America, Brazil, and all the British Colonies from the Canadas to the Australian antipodes, the evidence is alike in its favor. Consumptives find it the most powerful of restoratives The victims of mercurial and eruptive maladies depend upon its disinfectant and healing properties. The dyspeptic, the bilious, the sufferers from malarious fevers, intermittent and remittent, find it safe and sure. It has never disappointed those who have put their trust in it. In all diseases of the stomach, liver, and bowels, Bristol's Vegetable Pills should be used in moderate doses along with the sarsaparilla, which will greatly hasten a cure. 515

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Dyspeptic Disorders.—Most of the diseases of the digestive organs consist in a weakness of the assorted parts, causing a deficiency or depravity of the bile or gastric juice. These Pills reestablish the right performance of these functions, and thus triumphantly restore and renovate appetite, digestion, and health. Holloway's Pills perpetually prevent cases of chronic indigestion and its attendant maladies, that can hardly be relieved, and certainly that never were cured by any other means, medicinal, dietitic, or otherwise. They are admirably adapted for every class and every constitution. Holloway's Pills cannot be equalled for the purifying, soothing and regulating powers they exercise over all diseases of the digestive, mucous and muscular systems, and they are peculiarly efficacious in nervous debility. 21

An Aristocratic Perfume.—Bulwer Lytton, the great English romancist, says that a gentleman is known by the perfume he uses. The coarse scent marks the coarse man. There is a delicacy, an insinuating and luxurious softness in the aroma of Murray and Lanman's Florida Water, which is delightful to persons of taste and refinement. Hence it is an acceptable to the true gentleman as to the lady of fine sensibilities. More than this: Every gentleman knows, or should know, that when sufficiently diluted with water it is a wonderful emollient—the best that can possibly be used after shaving. Its refreshing odor is an exquisite contrast to the sickly taint of the heavy French extracts. ☞ Purchasers are requested to see that the words "FLORIDA WATER, MURRAY AND LANMAN, No. 69 Water street, New York," are stamped in the glass on each bottle. Without this none is genuine. 625

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutricious blood, and nutricious blood a healthy frame. Does this victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal forces which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthful invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effect, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged.

Dr Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of females resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances an derangement to which, as a sex, they are subject. Cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

GENTLEMEN:—"I had a negro man worth $1 200 who took cold from a bad hurt in the leg, and was useless for over a year. I had used everything I could hear of without benefit, until I tried the Mexican Mustang Liniment. It soon effected a permanent cure."

J. L. DOWNING.

Montgomery, Ala. June 17th, 1859.

"I take pleasure in recommending the Mexican Mustang Linement as a valuable and indispensible article for Sprains, Scars, Scratches or Galls on Horses. Our men have used it for Burns, Bruises, Sores, Rheumatism, &c., and all say it acts like magic."

J. W. HEWITT

Foreman for American, Wells Fargo's and Harnden's Express.

"The sprain of my daughter's ankle, occasioned while skating last winter, was entirely cured in one week, after she commenced to use your celebrated Mustang Liniment."

ED SEELY.

Gloucester, Mass. August 1, 1865.

It is an admitted fact that the Mexican Mustang Liniment performs more cures in a shorter time, on man and beast, than any article ever discovered. Families, livery-men and planters should always have it on hand Quick and sure it certainly is. All genuine is wrapped steel-plated engravings, bearing the signature of G. W. Westbrook, Chemist, and the private U. S. stamp Demas Barnes & Co. over the top.

An effort has been made to counterfeit it with a cheap stone plate label. Look closely!

Lyon's Kathairon.

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing.
It eradicates scurf and dandruff.
It keeps the head cool and clean
It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy.
It prevents hair turning gray and falling off.
It restores hair upon prematurely bald heads.

This is just what Lyon's Kathairon will do. It is pretty—it is cheap—durable. It is literally sold by the car-load, and yet its almost incredible demand is daily increasing, until there is hardly a country store that does not keep it, or a family that does not use it.

Medical.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases: consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

Holloway's Ointment.

This wonderful Ointment acts like magic in relieving and curing old sores, wounds, bad legs, ulcers and eruptions of the skin; when rubbed on the surface it penetrates and purifies each tissue in its passage, and exerts the most wholesome influence over the internal structures it heals by cleansing all animal fluids with which it comes in contact, and thereby promotes a sound and permanent cure.

Gout and Rheumatism.

To sufferers from the racking pains of Rheumatism and Gout this Ointment will prove invaluable. After fomentation with warm water the soothing action of this Ointment is most remarkable; it seems at once to lessen inflamation, ease pain, reduce the swelling, restore natural circulation, and expels the disease. For the above complaints Holloway's Ointment and Pills are infallible spe

REFINING WORKS,

CAPITAL STOCK, - - - - $1,000,000.

Directors:

JOHN PARROTT, CHAS. E. McLANE,
WM. C. RALSTON, A. HAYWARD,
LOUIS A. GARNETT.

LOUIS A GARNETT.....President and Manager
JOHN HEWSTON, JR.....Chemist and Superintendent

THIS COMPANY HAVING GREATLY ENlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

The Tariff of Charges

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Gold Bars.

One-eighth of one per cent (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,000, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Silver Bars.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,000, and one-eighth of one per cent for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Refining Deposits made for Coin or Fine Bars.

On bullion under 900 parts gold 2 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 900¼@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 600¼@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 750¼@949¼ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.

Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

For Coining Gold.

This charge will be the same as at the mint—a half a one per cent—and which is paid by us to that institution But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

Returns in Coin made in Forty-eight Hours.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

Charges at U. S. Branch Mint.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that Institution:

For refining bullion under 900 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 900¼@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 600¼@750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 750¼@850 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 850¼@949¼ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce.

The charge for coinage is one half of one per cent, and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same.

Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ½ of one per cent—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal one return which would have been made had they been posited for coinage:

850 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.

845 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 11 cents.

at 865 par to equal San Francisco A. & R. Works return refining charge of 8 cents. m18, 2p3m

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

The grand secret of attaining happiness is to secure good health, without which life is stripped of its pleasures. The first irregularity of any function should be checked and set right by the appropriate dose of these fine purifying Pills, which strengthen the system by thoroughly cleansing the blood from all impurities. They balance disordered action, remove the cause of disturbance and restore its normal and natural power to every organ, without inconvenience, pain or any other drawback

Derangement of the Bowels, Liver and Stomach Complaints.

This medicine is so well known in every part of the world, and the cures effected by its use are so wonderful as to astonish every one. It is pre-eminence as a remedy for bilious and liver complaints and derangements of the stomach and bowels is no longer a matter of dispute or doubt. In these diseases the beneficial effects of Holloway's invaluable Pills are so permanent and extensive that the whole system is renovated, the organs of digestion strengthened, and full and easy assimilation promoted, so that both physical and moral energy are increased,

Determination of Blood to the Head.

This is generally occasioned by some irregularity o stomach and bowels, which, if not quickly attended to, frequently terminates fatally. For all skin diseases, however inveterate, these medicines are a sovereign remedy While the Pills act upon the blood, which they purify, the ointment passes through the pores of the skin, and cleanses every structure, as water saturates lint or soil or as salt penetrates meat. The whole physical machinery is thus rendered healthy, regular and vigorous

No medicine will cure colds of long duration or such as are settled upon the chest so quickly as these famous Pills. Even in cases where the first stage of asthmas has appeared these Pills may be relied on as a certain and never failing remedy, particularly if the Ointment be simultaneously well rubbed into the chest and throat night and morning.

GENTLEMEN:—"I had a negro man worth $1 200 who took cold from a bad hurt in the leg, and was useless for over a year. I had used everything I could hear of without benefit, until I tried the Mexican Mustang Liniment It soon effected a permanent cure."

J. L. DOWNING.

Montgomery, Ala. June 17th, 1859.

"I take pleasure in recommending the Mexican Mustang Liniment as a valuable and indispensible article for Sprains, Scars, Scratches or Galls on Horses. Our men have used it for Burns, Bruises, Sores, Rheumatism, &c., and all say it acts like magic."

J. W. HEWITT.

Foreman for American, Wells Fargo's and Harnden's Express.

"The sprain of my daughter's ankle, occasioned while skating last winter, was entirely cured in one week, after she commenced to use your celebrated Mustang Liniment."

ED SEELY

Gloucester, Mass. August 1, 1865.

It is an admitted fact that the Mexican Mustang Liniment performs more cures in a shorter time, on man and beast, than any article ever discovered. Families, livery-men and planters should always have it on hand Quick and sure it certainly is. All genuine is wrapped steel plated engravings, bearing the signature of G. W. Westbrook, Chemist, and the private U. S. stamp Demas Barnes & Co. over the top.

An effort has been made to counterfeit it with a cheap stone plate label. Look closely!

Lyon's Kathairon.

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing.

It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy.
It prevents hair turning gray and falling off.
It restores hair upon permaturely bald heads.

This is just what Lyon's Kathairon will do. It is pretty—it is cheap—durable. It is literally sold by the car-load, and yet its almost incredible demand is daily increasing, until there is hardly a country store that does not keep it, or a family that does not use it.
